Italy Visit

Over Easter, a group of Longcroft students took part in an educational visit to Italy.

Joining forces with South Holderness Technical College, the group flew from Heathrow to experience the culture, history and geography of some of the most famous historic Italian locations.

We are delighted to report that the behaviour of students was exemplary and that the experience was appreciated and enjoyed by all in attendance.

During the week, students from both schools contributed to a blog that was updated daily and followed by their family and friends back home. Click here to read the blog.

Many thanks to the members of staff from both Longcroft and South Holderness, who enabled this visit to take place and well done to our students for their good behaviour and enthusiasm.
