

LONGCROFT NEWS

Friday 13th April 2018

News from the Longcroft Libraries

This term promises to be an exciting one with lots of library events planned. More news coming shortly.

For April our author of the month at the Lower School Library is John Boyne. Many of you will be familiar with his novel 'the boy in the striped pyjamas'; students will find a display of his works at the Lower School Library

At the US library, we celebrate the writing of Suzanne Collins, most famous for The Hunger Games series. Do encourage your children to read these authors, and remind them that they can request books at any time. We want to empower our students to make choices, and read widely

This month the Library is launching a writing competition based on names. So many of our students have really interesting names, and researching and writing about them is a great way of developing literacy skills. Competition details are available at both libraries

Don't forget that GCSE revision guides are available at the US Library. We want all our students to achieve the very best they can.

Message from the NHS

The local NHS has sent us some information about what to do and where to go if someone becomes ill or is injured. Click here to view it.

Youth Circuit Racing

The Hull Thursday Road Club is organising a series of youth circuit cycle races that might be of interest to students. Click here for more information.

----- END -----